

SCHOOL BOARD REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULINGS

The school board reserves the right to review and rescind any administrative rulings should they, in the school board's judgment, be inconsistent with the policies adopted by the school board.

The school board further reserves the right to review and rescind any administrative ruling(s) in the absence of an existing policy, as the school board may deem necessary.

The school board reserves the right to rescind any administrative ruling without debate or comment.
