

INTERIM ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS

In the event of a vacancy or the removal of an administrator, the superintendent will recommend an interim to be approved and appointed by the school board. Once the position is officially declared open for applications, the person holding the interim position may apply for the permanent position. If a suitable candidate is not found, the position will be re-advertised.

Adopted 2002
Revised 2016

